

TUESDAY SEPTEMBER 13. 1743.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

Petersburgh, August 31.

REAT Preparations are making for the extraordinary Embassy which her Imperial Majesty intends to send very shortly into Sweden. The Presents that are destin'd for this Purpose, are not worth less than 50,000 Rubles. General Romanzoff is the Person appointed to go with the Character of Ambassador Extraordinary, to compliment the Swedish Successor to the Crown, on his Election; and Baron Cedercreutz is expected here from Stockholm with the same Character, in order to compliment his Imperial Highness. The Conspiracy here is a very serious Affair, however the Court, from a refin'd Policy, may incline to treat it. It is said, they intended to restore the young Emperor John, and to appoint a certain Foreign Prince his Protector: The reigning Empress was to be deposed, if they went no farther with her, and the whole System of the Government chang'd. General Lanchin is Prisoner in the Fortrefs, and we expect very speedily to see a new Ukase, or Imperial Degree, containing an authentic Detail of this Affair; which will be more necessary, if, as it is generally believed, we should demand Satisfaction for this Business at a certain Court.

Stockholm, September 11. Field-Marshal Baron Hamilton is set out for Scania, in order to take upon him the command of the Troops assembled there to defend that province, in case of an Invasion. The Secret Committee have brought in a long and labour'd Report, in relation to the Three following Topics. I. The Measures which induced the first Transport of Troops into Poland. II. The Schemes and Alliance upon which the War was grounded. III. The Reasons why the War was not sooner call'd, viz. immediately after the first Miscarriages that happen'd. The Nobility, instead of entering into Debates upon this Report, came to a Resolution to lay it aside, and to send a solemn Deputation to the other Orders, to represent to them the Expediency burying in Oblivion all Disputes, that they may part with each other in Terms of perfect Friendship.

Naples, August 27. According to the last Accounts we have from the Army in Italy, there is like to be an active Campaign. The French have at last join'd the late Don Philip, in order to enable him to make an Invasion into Italy; and the Duke of Modena, and Count Ages, are preparing to advance again into the Ecclesiastical State, in order to put Count Traun, with his forces, between two Fires, in case the before-mention'd design should succeed.

Florence, August 31. All Kinds of Forage and Provisions being grown extremely scarce and dear in Lombardy, Count Traun has demanded of the Regency of the Duchy a certain Quantity of Corn, and Oats; for the furnishing of which, Orders were immediately issued, but were instantly countermanded, upon a Letter from the Count de Gages, representing, that such a Step was incompatible with the Neutrality hitherto maintain'd by the Regency. Upon this, a Courier was immediately sent to Naples. Three thousand Austrians are lately arriv'd on our Frontiers, and, it is thought, they will be speedily follow'd by at least as many more. The Military Stores lately landed in the Territories of the Ecclesiastical State, are much more considerable than they were first believ'd to be; but it is thought, that Count Traun will not suffer them to be carried to the Spanish Army without Interruption; and this is the rather because his Troops are every where in Motion.

Berlin, September 14. On the 10th Instant his Majesty went at Four in the Morning, attended by Prince Wilhelm, Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick, Adjutant-General, his Chamberlain, Baron de Polnitz, the Privy-Councillor Eichel, and the Poet Voltaire, for Breith; whence he is to go to Anspach, where he is to visit Veldt-Marshal Count Seckendorff, who is said to be charg'd with a very important Commission; but whence his Majesty will go next, is a Secret. We only thus much, that somewhere he is to go for the space of a Month; and that this Journey will produce the most extraordinary that have yet happen'd in his Majesty's Reign.

Stettin, September 12. Things are come about again in their old Situation, by the oddest Accident in the world. The City of Egra surrender'd on the 6th, and next Morning two fine Regiments of Horse, which were employ'd in the Blockade, march'd to join General Berenclau; Veldt-Marshal Seckendorff had immediately Notice of this, which induced him to suspend his Motions, and now he talks as much of a Neutrality, as ever. General Berenclau, however, seems not at all inclin'd to trust him, but has made all the necessary Preparations for defending himself, in case of an Attack. We have had an unlucky Affair upon our Hands for some Days past, and we know not yet how it will end. When our Gates were open'd one Morning, in rush'd three French Officers, with an Officer of Croats at their Heels. The latter pretended that the former were his Prisoners, and insisted upon their being given up to him, which embarrasses us not a little.

Frankfort, September 15. We look upon it here as a Thing certain, that the Accommodation between the Emperor and the Queen of Hungary depends upon Prince Charles's passing the Rhine. If he succeeds, his Imperial Majesty will be oblig'd to quit his Engagements with France; if not, a new War will very probably break out in the Empire. Here have been of late several secret Conferences held in his Imperial Majesty's Presence, at the rising of which, it has been observ'd, that Couriers have been regularly dispatch'd to the Courts of Paris and Berlin. Our last Advices from the Army of the Allies inform us, that Count Maurice of Nassau was arriv'd there, and had been very graciously receiv'd by his Britannick Majesty, with whom he had the Honour to dine. It is thought, this Army will march on the 18th towards Frankendal, where they are erecting great Magazines of Forage and Provision.

Brussels, September 17. Count Konigsberg-Erps has receiv'd an Express dispatch'd by the Duke of Aremberg, Commander in Chief of the Austrian Forces in the Allied Army, with the important News of Prince Charles of Lorraine happily passing the Rhine near Rhineveiler, ten or twelve Leagues above Brisac, of which Prince Charles sent Advice to the King of Great Britain, the Moment he set his Foot in the French Territories. Count Konigsberg immediately caus'd this Intelligence to be made known to the People, by a general Discharge of the Artillery, by the ringing of Bells, &c.

Hague, September 18. The States have receiv'd this Morning, about 11 o'Clock, Letters from the Secretary of M. Kinschot, their Resident at Brussels, with the important News, that Prince Charles had pass'd the Rhine near Rhineveiler, in the very same Spot where his Troops had been repuls'd on the 4th. These Letters add, that Field Marshal Count Kevenhuller remain'd in the Neighbourhood of Brisac, in order to keep the French in Expectation of his attempting to pass, while Prince Charles executed his Scheme at Rhineveiler, which is about twelve Leagues higher.

Dublin, September 3. Monday last came on at the Affairs of Limerick, the Trial of Talbot Edgworth, Esq; for the Murder of Mr. John Fosberry, when he was acquitted.

Tuesday Morning the Right Hon. the Earl of Anglesea landed at Dunbary, from England.

On Thursday a Man was found drown'd in a little Brook in the North Lotts, his Legs and Arms were tied, and half his Body over the Water. It is thought he was in Want, and flung himself in.

Last Wednesday Morning a Man was taken before Alderman Burrows for Enlisting Men into the French Service, and after a long Examination, was committed to Newgate.

By Letters from Bourdeaux we hear, that the Post-ship, of Wexford, James Codd, Master, from Madeira, was taken by a Spanish Privateer and carried into St. Sebastian's.

C O U N T R Y N E W S.

Ipswich, September 9. Yesterday John Cornelius, Esq; and Mr. John Margerum, were chosen Bailiffs of this Town for the Year ensuing.

Sudbury, September 5. This Day Mr. Carter was chosen Mayor of this Corporation for the Year ensuing, by a Majority of One, after a strong Opposition.

Norwich, September 10. Last Sunday Morning Isaac Wolfrey, and John Brooks, both Journeymen Glovers of this City, walk'd out into the Country a Nutting; at their return, they agreed to go and wash themselves at Fuller's Hole; when one of them, that could not Swim, going out of his Depth, call'd to the other, who could, who immediately hasten'd to his Assistance; but very much to his Misfortune, for the other catching hold of him round his Neck, they both sunk to the Bottom, and were drown'd.

Last Monday the Norwich Stage Coach was robb'd on New Market Heath by a single Highwayman, who was the next Day taken at Thetford, and carried before the Mayor there, who immediately committed him to Prison; this may happen to be a very great Misfortune, as he is supposed to be the Son of very honest and reputable People of this City.

H O M E P O R T S.

L O N D O N.

The Capudan Basha, vulgarly call'd the Captain Basha, or Turkish High Admiral, has been lately banish'd to Candia. The Grand Vizir is to command in Chief the Army which is to march against the Shah Nader, and is to be assisted by Basha Bonneval.

The Caracapaques, a Race of Tartars so powerful as to be able to bring 30,000 Men into the Field, and the most determined Enemies of Russia, have lately sent Deputies to Petersburg, to submit themselves, and take an Oath of Fidelity to the Czarina; and as a farther Proof of their Sincerity, they have thought proper to release near 10,000 Russians, who were Prisoners in their Country.

By Letters from Nuremberg we learn, that the City of Egra surrender'd on the 6th Instant, N. S. and that the Garrison are made Prisoners of War; but upon Condition, that they shall be sent into Bohemia, and not into Hungary; and that their Officers shall have Leave to return to France upon their Parole. They march'd out 3000 strong, of whom 500 were Officers.

The French and Spaniards have actually begun their march towards Piedmont, and the King of Sardinia has caus'd all his Troops to take the Field.

The French have carried off 34 of the Marshalsea Men, who had taken Post in the Abby of St. Hubert, as also the Prior, and two of the Monks, which, it is thought, will be attended with extraordinary Consequences.

All the Divisions of the Dutch Troops were expected to join the Army of the Allies by the 18th, or rather the Evening before.

According to private Letters from the Hague, Prince Charles of Lorraine pass'd the Rhine on the 12th, about three Hours after his Troops had ceas'd firing from the Island, and the French believ'd he had totally abandon'd his Design. His Loss is computed at about 300 Men.

His Majesty has been pleas'd to appoint Henry Skelton, Second Major of the Third Regiment of Foot Guards, to be Col. of the Regiment lately Commanded by Col. Huske.

Likewise to appoint Capt. Waldgrave to be Col. of a Company in the Third Regiment of Foot Guards, in the room of Capt. Skelton, promoted.

Also to appoint Capt. Hildley to be Captain-Lieutenant in the room of Capt. Waldgrave.

The Sykes, Foster, from Stockholm to Hull, is lost near the Humber.

Last Week died at his Lodgings in Mount-street, near Grosvenor-Square, Chamberlain Dashiwood, Esq; Lieutenant of Horse in the Regiment commanded by his Grace the Duke of Montague.

Yesterday died at Mile-End, Mr. John Turner, of Mansfield-street, Goodmans-fields, belonging to the Custom-house.

Yesterday Elizabeth King was committed to the Poultry Compter by Sir George Champion, for feloniously picking the Pocket of Mr. Isaac Letour of West-street, Spitalfields, of one Guinea, in a notorious House in Threadneedle-street.

As was also Mary Moss, Ann Linley, Sarah Nicholson and Elizabeth Holloway, to the London Workhouse, for being loose, disorderly Persons, and common Night-Walkers, taken up in Fleetstreet on Sunday Night, on the Oath of Mr. Bird and Mr. Sharrock, two Constables of St. Brides.

As was likewise John Smith to Bridewell, for stealing a small Quantity of Tobacco out of a Warehouse at Brewers Key.

Yesterday the Sessions ended at the Old Bailey, when Seven Prisoners were tried, One of whom was capitally convicted; viz. Joseph Lewin, for returning from Transportation.

Three were cast for Transportation. And Three Acquitted.

Eleanor Mackintosh and Susanna Carter, who were convicted of Manslaughter, were burnt in the Hand. The Four mentioned before to be Capitally convicted, with John Lewin, receiv'd Sentence of Death.

Margaret Stansbury pleaded her Belly, and was found Not Quick with Child.
